TALL CORN GLADS AND
SUPERB PEONIES

TO MY CUSTOMERS AND ALL FLOWER LOVERS: Greetings for 1958! I trust that you had a good flower season in 1957, and are full of enthusiasm and plans for the new season that is coming so rapidly. I have a very high quality stock of bulbs for you to choose from, and will be very happy to have a chance to put up another order for you this season. Will you permit me to put in a word at this point relative to peonies. I now have more than 150 varieties, many of them the newest on the market. Peonies seem to fit in perfectly for the gladiolus lover. They come early, are perennial, do not interfere with the planting of glads, and come nearest to the glad in affording beauty and satisfaction. If you have not planted one of the more recent introductions, you have not seen the grandeur and beauty of the peony. I can take care of your needs this fall at peony planting time. Look over the listing on the last pages of this price list and include an order along with the glads. Let me now wish you your finest flower season ever, and hope you win many blue ribbons with your flowers.

Most sincerely yours,

H. E. Morrow

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Read carefully before making out your order
Take close notice of item No. 3.

1. My bulbs are doubly State Inspected, once in the field, and again in storage.
2. All orders accepted subject to stock and prior sales.
3. If your order is for less than $3.00 please inclose an additional 35¢ for shipping charges.
4. I guarantee the stock which I ship to be true to name, and if at the end of the season it has proved not to be, let me know and I will replace. My stock is also guaranteed to be free of disease, and healthy.
5. Cash with order, please, or write for special arrangement.
6. Satisfaction and generosity are my guiding principles.
7. I list my bulbs in three sizes, Large, Medium, Small, indicated by the three letters, L,M,S. "BLBTS" means that bulblets are available.
8. Explanation of the numbers which immediately follow the variety descriptions:
 - (1) The name is that of the originator.
 - (2) The first number, always with three digits, designates the size of the florets.

- (3) The second number designates the year in which the variety was introduced.
- (4) The third and last number indicates the number of days from date of planting needed on the average for the bulbs to produce bloom.
- (5) For example - ABU HASSAN reads as follows: "(Holland) 378 47-77. Interpreted, the variety was originated in Holland. The 378 means that the flower is of medium size. The 47 means it was introduced in 1947, the 77 means that under right conditions the Abu Hassan bulbs will come to bloom 77 days after planting.
- (6) Explanation of the number indicating sizes: Glad blooms are classified in five sizes. The first digit in the size numbers indicate these sizes. If the first digit is one (1) the flowers will measure less than $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and are known as minatures. If the first digit is two (2) the florets measure $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches to $3\frac{1}{4}$, and are called "small". If the first digit is three (3) the floret measures $3\frac{1}{4}$ to $4\frac{3}{8}$ inches and are called "medium". If the first digit is four (4) the flower measures $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches to $5\frac{3}{8}$ and is called "large". If the first digit is five (5) the flower measures $5\frac{1}{2}$ inches and larger, and is called "giant". The last two digits indicate colors, which are stated in the variety descriptions.

MINATURES AND SMALL

Glad's are classified in five sizes as follows:

Miniature - - -	100 --	florets under $2\frac{1}{2}$ "
Small - - - - -	200 --	$2\frac{1}{2}$ " through $3\frac{1}{4}$ "
Medium - - - - -	300 --	$3\frac{1}{4}$ " through $4\frac{3}{8}$ "
Large - - - - -	400 --	$4\frac{1}{2}$ " through $5\frac{3}{8}$ "
Giant - - - - -	500 --	$5\frac{1}{2}$ " or larger.

For instance, the second variety shown in the alphabetical list, Abu Hassan, is followed by the number 378. The 300 means it has a floret size from $3\frac{1}{4}$ " through $4\frac{3}{8}$ ". The 78 designates this variety as a deep violet. Hence the numbers after the variety names tell the story of the size and color of the individual floret as grown under field conditions from large bulbs.

I would like to say a few words about the two smallest sizes - Minatures and Small sizes. While a few hybridizers have been originating and growing Minatures and small sizes for many years, the public has scorned them until very recently. Now they have come into their own. They afford a whole new realm of floral materials for unusual and classic floral designing that is impossible with the large and giant sizes. They are especially suitable for bridal corsages, table decorations, and all occasions calling for delicate effects. I am listing 15 in this price list, and grow many more which are not offered for sale this year. Here are the varieties available this year: Atom, Bo Peep, Fifth Avenue, Gaily Clad, Little Gold, Loveliness, Lucille, Nadia, Pelletier D'Oisy, Peter Pan, Starlet, Statuette, Tony Boy, Toytown, Yellow Bird. Why not give these darling little fellows a trial this season?

SUPERB PEONIES

For a number of years I have been deeply interested in the growing of select peonies as an early flower preceeding the blooming of the glads. I am now in position to offer a few superb varieties which have made enviable records. There are perhaps 2000 varieties of peonies listed in the various catalogues. I am offering the public about 70 varieties, very carefully selected from these, many of the newer introductions. While some of these are priced a bit higher than the "run of the mill," they are well worth the extra cost. You have something to be proud of when you own these varieties that I am offering you. My root divisions are unexcelled, bearing from three to five strong eyes, and often more. Many of these are grand champions, and have been in the famous "Court of Honor", the highest award in the peony world. Every variety offered is superb, tried and proven top performers. You buy these with confidence and certainty that you will have something to be proud of.

Let me say a word about the Singles and Japs. These marvelous beauties are coming to the front in recent years as have the Minatures and small varieties of the glads. A FEW SIMPLE SUGGESTIONS RELATIVE TO
GLADIOLUS GROWING

1. SOIL. The glad is not choosy. Any good soil for vegetables will grow good glads. Should be well drained.
2. LOCATION. Keep away from buildings, shrubbery, and shaded areas.
3. PREPARATION OF SOIL. Just as tho for other garden stuff.
4. SELECTION OF BULBS. It is not necessary to remove husks. Do not plant diseased bulbs, or scrawny ones. It is advisable to soak the bulbs and bulblets in Lysol for as much as four hours. Use one and a half tablespoonsful per gal of water. This is some cheek to thrips and disease should there be any present at planting time.
5. FERTILIZING. Do not overfertilize. Ground that produces vegetables is rich enough for glads.
6. PLANTING. In light, sandy soil; plant five to six inches. In heavy soil, about four to five inches. Depth helps to support the tall spikes, prevents them from blowing over. Space large bulbs about three to the foot. Plant bulblets in trenches about two inches deep, sow thickly, and cultivate frequently.
7. CULTIVATION. Glads are responsive to good cultivation. It pays to keep weeds out. They need lots of water at spiking time. Don't sprinkle - give them good soakings as needed.
8. FIELD OBSERVATIONS. Pull up every plant that is showing yellow and dying, remove from field.
9. CUTTING SPIKES. Cut early in morning, and place in cool room in water for best results. Leave from 3 to 4 leaves on the plant.
10. DIGGING. It is better to dig while foliage is still green. They are easier handled, and one can also detect diseased bulbs more easily. Cut tops off immediately when dug, and as close to the bulb as is possible. Let the bulbs dry in shallow boxes under shade. Shortly, perhaps three weeks, the old bulb and roots will easily break off of the new bulb.
11. STORAGE. When the bulbs are cleaned, place in a cool, reasonably dry place for winter storage. Be sure they do not freeze. 40 to 45 degrees is ideal. Do not pile them more than three inches deep. Best to have boxes with slat or screened bottoms, for air circulation. If storage temperature is higher than 55 degrees, it is recommended that the bulbs be dusted with DDT 5%. This is for the control of thrips during storage period.
12. FIELD ATTENTION. Thrips are the most likely enemy of the glad during growing season. They damage the florets, often completely removing all juice from the bud so that it will not open. Damaged florets less injured will open with the edges of the florets appearing grayish. Thrips are pretty well under control with the use of DDT in either dust or liquid form. Dusting is the easier method. Apply when plants are about one foot tall, and every ten days or so, oftener in rainy weather.
